

This year's AGM will be linked to the Cadwell Park trackday and will be held at the Three Horseshoes pub in Goulceby, just a couple of miles from Cadwell. As we've just held the international rally in Kent, it will be a smaller event than usual, but with good company and activities. The pub serves very good food.

Free camping facilities are available at the Three Horseshoes from Wednesday until Sunday. We also have the use of two fully-equipped Euro tents: one four-berth and the other for six. (Contact the organisers if interested in booking one). The trackday is on Thursday, and on Friday we've organised a ride-out in the beautiful Lincolnshire Wolds, visiting the newly-opened International Bomber Memorial Gardens outside Lincoln.

The AGM itself will take place on Saturday afternoon and we aim to complete it in a sensibly short time. The meeting is essential to make sure that the club's elected committee is accountable to you, the members, but it will be brief and informative.

You're welcome to attend as much of the event as you like. The trackday itself is sold out, but it's a friendly event with excellent spectating areas.
